Eat Out and Win Big with 'Restaurant Bingo' at nearly 50 participating dining establishments

Participants have a chance to win a $50 gift certificate weekly prize or a grand prize gift certificate package valued at $250

Flemington, NJ – March 7, 2022 – Foodies and everyone who loves food are invited to play Restaurant Bingo while exploring Flemington's expansive restaurant scene as Historic Flemington and the Flemington Community Partnership (FCP) host Restaurant Month all month long in March.

With nearly 50 participating restaurants, there's something for everyone in Flemington. Guests are encouraged to visit a favorite local spot or discover a new one during this month-long celebration. A spin off on traditional restaurant weeks, Flemington's Restaurant Month offers four full weeks of memorable dining experiences. Whether it's a quick bite or a fine dining experience, Flemington's Restaurant Month invites everyone to indulge in the thrill of participating in a fun Bingo game while enjoying the area's wide selection of dining establishments.

"We are delighted to host Restaurant Month in Flemington," said Robin Lapidus, FCP Executive Director. "It's the perfect time to gather friends and family and explore Flemington's amazing array of dining choices and have the chance to win wonderful Flemington prizes."

Dining has never been more of an adventure in Flemington than during Restaurant Month, as visitors traverse the town with their Restaurant Bingo Boards in hand to visit participating dining establishments. As guests dine, they're invited to mark their Bingo Boards with each spot they have visited – and take a selfie at the dining establishment as proof of their visit. Once local restaurant-goers have marked five restaurants in a row on their card, they can submit their boards and photos for a chance to win a weekly prize of a $50 gift certificate to their favorite restaurant. A grand prize winner also will be drawn April 6 for a gift certificate package valued at $250 with a bonus prize for the best selfie.

More information, a complete list of participating restaurants, and downloadable Bingo boards are available at www.LoveFlemington.com/restaurant-bingo/.

Flemington is home to restaurants, cafes, and places to grab farm-fresh dishes or sweet-treats. From global cuisine to farm-to-table dining, sip, dine, and unwind in one of nearly 50 distinct different eateries — many with fantastic seasonal patios. Family-owned cafes are the perfect spot to grab breakfast or relax in a lovingly restored Victorian Manor for fine dining, or a local brewery for a craft beer; there truly is something for everyone.

Renowned Flemington foodie destinations include Teaberry's Tea Room, an authentic English Tea House nestled in a grand Victorian home; Matt's Red Rooster Grill, serving contemporary American cuisine creatively prepared over a wood fired grill; Blue Fish Grill, innovative so-Cal cuisine served up within the restored and ultra-hip Stangl Pottery Factory building; 55 Main, contemporary dining room décor and casual atmosphere along with friendly service and a Multi-Cultural Influenced New American cuisine; Al Fresco's favorite family recipes made with the freshest ingredients; Dolce, home of authentic Italian cuisine and fine dining; and Cilantro Garden, authentic Indian food. Come discover your favorite dining gem during Restaurant Month.

About Historic Flemington, NJ

Historic Flemington is Hunterdon County, NJ's beautiful county seat, where there's something for everyone. We invite you to stroll our tree-lined streets and admire our charming buildings – 65% of our borough is listed in the National Register of Historic Places. Flemington has always been a fascinating crossroads for shopping, agriculture, and the arts, and it has grown in recent years as a regional destination for more than 400 businesses, including 50 restaurants, boutiques, country stores, national outlets, bookstores, and art galleries. Flemington boasts nine antique stores in both large historic buildings on Main Street and nestled in unique spaces on side streets waiting to be discovered. Flemington is an antique lover's dream, with big-city quality finds, small town prices, and friendly knowledgeable "Mom and Pop" business owners.

Fun in Flemington is measured by almost weekly special events. Flemington's convenient free parking lots and long picturesque streets make it a favorite destination for seasonal festivals including Flemington Car Shows, Salsa Night, Flemington Fine Artisans Show, Rail Fest, Flemington Flea Market, Flemington Corn, Tomato and Beer Festival, Central Jersey Jazz Fest, and Holiday Lights. Flemington's Main Street is host to the Hunterdon Holiday Parade, Memorial Day Parade, and annual (and adorable) Halloween Parade. Flemington's also hosts several races including the Turkey Trot 5K, Girls on the Run 5K, and Main Street Half Marathon which winds (and climbs) through bucolic Hunterdon from Clinton to Flemington. Bikers love Hunterdon's rolling hills and pastoral roads, and Flemington is the perfect place to stop, stretch your legs, and dine and browse the shops. For a more relaxed outing, try the Historic Flemington Trail, a historic one-mile walking tour available online (loveflemington.com) or in the Visitor's Kiosk on Main Street.
